

Explore More Crossword Puzzle

Kingfisher

Across

2. The _____ is the second-largest living rodent.
4. A trail in the park and also one of the Founding Fathers of the United States.
6. These birds peck at decaying trees to find small insects and larvae.
8. The _____ of Black Hill Nature Programs donated the telescope on the back deck of the Discovery Center. (Hint: find the sign.)
10. According to the sign in front of the Discovery Center, who maintains the gardens at the center?

Down

1. Little _____ Lake is a 505-acre reservoir, built to provide an emergency water supply for the DC area.
3. There are over _____ miles of hard and natural surface trails for hiking, mountain biking, and horseback riding. (Hint: it's also the first two numbers of the building on the Discovery Center.)
5. Monarch larvae eat only this plant.
7. Taking volunteers 1,100 hours, the _____ outside the Discovery Center is made up of old plastic bottles filled with recyclables which were then covered with cob (sand, straw, clay and water) and then covered with broken tiles.
9. Behind the park office you will find an old entrance to the Black Hill _____ mine.